

Preparing your Application

Preparing your application is your first step toward continuing your education at any one of the Nunavut Arctic College's Learning Centres or Campuses.

There are a number of parts to an application.

1. The Application form (attached);

2. Official Post-Secondary Transcript

3. Official High School Transcript or Educational Assessment test;

4. Letter of Intent;

5. Three letters of reference;

 Request for Accommodation form (should you need to attend school away from home). Additional information is required for the following courses. (Please note: Nunavut Arctic College does not provide the forms and statements below):

• Early Childhood Education: Immunization Schedule, RCMP Security Form

• Interpreter Translator: I/T Language Test

• Nunavut Teacher Education: Immunization Schedule, RCMP Security Form,

Résumé

• Management Studies: Interview may be required

• Jewellery & Metalwork: Interview may be required, Portfolio (optional)

Environmental Technology: Résumé, Hand-written Letter of Intent
 Human Services: RCMP Security Form, Interview

1. Application Form (also at www.arcticcollege.ca)

If you are applying for admission to Credit, Trades or Academic Studies programs, complete this form and follow all of the instructions. You must fill out all parts of this form, and attach the appropriate documents.

PLEASE NOTE THAT ONLY COMPLETE APPLICATIONS WILL BE PROCESSED.

2. Transcripts

Applicants with high school credits or post-secondary education must arrange with the school(s) at which they studied to have a copy of their transcript(s) mailed to Nunavut Arctic College. Transcripts should be sent to the same address as the application form.

Applicants who believe that their past post-secondary education or other experience may qualify them for credit toward Nunavut Arctic College courses may also submit an Application for Transfer Credits or Challenge Credits at this time. See Credit Transfer and Prior Learning for more information at www.arcticcollege.ca.

3. Educational Assessment

Applicants who do not meet the academic program admission requirements will be required to write an educational assessment test. For more information, contact your nearest Community Learning Centre or Campus Registrar for more details.

4. Letter of Intent

Attach a one page explanation of why you are interested in the program you have chosen.

5. Three Letters of Reference

Applicants need three letters of reference to be submitted with their application. People such as an adult educator, school principal, teachers or former employers are all suitable references. Print out the Applicant Reference Form from www.arcticcollege.ca and have your references fill it in, or have them write a separate letter.

6. Application for Housing (see www.arcticcollege.ca for the application form)

If you are required to study outside of your home community, you can apply for housing. But apply early as housing is limited. Print out the housing application form and include it (and any required references) with your application. Only applicants who are accepted into a program will be considered.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

You are responsible for contacting the agency providing financial assistance. For more information on financial assistance, see Costs and Financial Services on the NAC website at www.arcticcollege.ca, or call 1-800-661-0763. If you have already obtained sponsorship please attach proof of sponsorship, if available.

SUBMITTING YOUR APPLICATION

Mail, fax, or drop off your completed application and supporting documents to the closest campus or Community Learning Centre offering the program or courses you wish to attend. If you have any questions, contact the Registrar at;

Acknowledgement of Receipt and Follow-Up

You will receive a letter to acknowledge that your application has been received. This letter will identify any additional information or documentation that may be required. You will be contacted if an interview is needed. Some programs require interviews, others do not.

Letter of Acceptance

Once the College has obtained all of the necessary documents and results of required assessments or interviews, you will be contacted to let you know that you have:

- a) been accepted, with information on how to proceed with registration; or
- b) not been accepted, but recommended for Nunavut Arctic College basic education or preparatory courses; or
- c) not been accepted, with an explanation.

Registration for Courses

Registration in credit courses takes place in person after you have been accepted. Students accepted into programs will be given course registration instructions.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

For more information on programs and courses available, or for more detailed explanation or additional copies of forms, visit the Students section of the Nunavut Arctic College website at www.arcticcollege.ca.

If you require assistance with any part of your application, see your nearest college instructor, school principal or employment officer if you have any questions.

Apply early! The application process takes time, courses are offered only if interest is shown and student housing in filled up quickly.

For full College policies on application procedures, please see C.02 – Full-time Admissions – of the Policy and Procedures Manual, available at all Community Learning Centres and College libraries.
