

1. IDENTIFICATION

Position No. 70-2942	Job Title Adult Educator	Supervisor's Position Coordinator, Community Programs, Kivalliq
Department Nunavut Arctic College	Division/Region Kivalliq CLC	Community Baker Lake	Location Community Learning Centre
Freebalance Coding: 03300-01-3-333-0302001-04-????

2. PURPOSE

Main reason why the position exists, within what context and what the overall end result is.

The Adult Educator is the senior College staff member at the community level and is responsible for planning, organising, delivering and evaluating educational programming for adults in the community through Nunavut Arctic College. The adult educator provides instruction and instructional support, identifies and documents adult learning needs in the community as well as manages and maintains the learning environment at the Community Learning Centre.

The Adult Educator co-ordinates the delivery of programs within the objectives and policies of Nunavut Arctic College and the needs as outlined by the community. This includes assisting and supporting the provision of community-based post-secondary services.

3. SCOPE

Describe the impact the position has on the area in which it works, or if it impacts other departments, the government as a whole, or the public directly or indirectly. How does the position impact those groups/individuals, the organization and/or budgets? What is the magnitude of that impact?

The position is responsible to the adult population of the community and works with various individuals, organisations, companies and government departments in the community in order to determine and provide adult education and training. The adult educator provides supervision of the janitor, casual staff, program delivery, educational and career counselling services, building maintenance and operation, recommends budget expenditures, and conducts all aspects of an annual training needs assessment. The incumbent is expected to teach from a range of adult basic programming, which may include literacy, essential skills, basic education, and academic readiness. The incumbent must enhance the education and training provided in the community, assist people in deciding their education and training needs and help them apply for and obtain the identified education and/or training.

4. RESPONSIBILITIES

Describe major responsibilities and target accomplishments expected of the position. List the responsibilities that have the greatest impact on the organization first and describe them in a way that answers why the duties of the position are being performed. For a supervisory or management position, indicate the subordinate position(s) through which objectives are accomplished.

The incumbent directs the operation of adult education and training at the community level.

1. Identifies and documents adult education needs by:

- Assessing community training needs through formal research, feasibility considerations, consultation and liaison with employers and community groups and representatives;
- Assisting in the development of program proposals for financial support from third party funding sources;
- Assisting in the preparation of training plans for community organisations, researching availability of curriculum and resources from Nunavut Arctic College to meet identified needs;
- Maintaining student and program activity reports for community learning centre archives.

2. Provides instruction and instructional support by:

- Arranging and/or instructing adult basic education programs as prescribed by community and individual needs;
- Arranging and conducting workshops or courses to enhance the development of job-related or personal skills as prescribed by community groups and individual needs;
- Working with other campus program staff to plan and co-ordinate the delivery of part-time credit courses or programs;
- Ensuring Nunavut Arctic College academic standards are maintained;
- Providing orientation and instruction to new staff on curriculum standards, methods of instruction and use of equipment;
- Providing space for community-based learning and training activities;
- Evaluating student performance within College standards.
- Participating in Nunavut Arctic College professional development activities;
- Making pedagogical decisions of professional nature, e.g., selection and utilization of learning materials, grading, reports, etc.

3. Manages Learning Centre staff and courses by:

- Recruiting community-based term and casual staff for programs and courses;
- Supervising and supporting the Janitor of the Community Learning Centre;
- Providing employee information and resumes for casual staffing actions (CSA/RESA);
- Forwarding completed casual time sheets;
- Maintaining staff attendance for human resources;
- Conducting staff meeting and establishing work schedules;
- Providing orientation to new casual staff on curriculum standards, methods of instruction, use of equipment, and reporting requirements;
- Providing direction for staff delivering extension courses within the community;
- Conducting informal staff evaluations of local staff;
- Ensuring all students are properly assessed and registered;
- Researching and recommending the purchase of learning resources for program.

4. Manages administrative functions of the Centre by:

- Maintaining records of expenditures related to Purchase Orders;
- Maintaining an efficient system of ordering supplies;
- Proposing annual budget expenditures for Operations and Maintenance and for community activities;

- Maintaining and submitting to supervisor an annual inventory of fixed assets;
 - Collecting course fees where applicable;
 - Maintaining a filing system of student records, programs, funding agencies, and all relevant information pertaining to adult education;
 - Preparing and submitting monthly reports and a final program report to supervisor;
 - Arranging for evening building security if required
 - Notifying staff and students of course cancellations and closures of the Community Learning Centre;
 - Following procedures to ensure all equipment, property and building are maintained and in good repair;
 - Submitting student attendance reports to the funding agency and Registrar as required;
 - Collaborate with supervisor and Campus staff to deliver credit courses and programs;
 - Submitting to Registrar all necessary documents for the student record system;
 - Reporting, verbally and in writing, to supervisor as required.
5. Provides counselling services to adult students by:
- Counselling individuals for academic and career development;
 - Compiling and maintaining a resource library on training and career opportunities;
 - Referring students to specialised counselling available through the College or other agencies;
 - Providing academic and vocational information for existing and potential adult students;
 - Writing letters of reference/support to sponsoring agencies or for student applications.
6. Promotes Nunavut Arctic College activities by:
- Advertising Nunavut Arctic College community and regional courses and programs;
 - Promoting and organising events for Nunavut Arctic College week;
 - Selecting and preparing materials for local career fairs;
 - Providing liaison for external organisations and companies which impact community training and employment;
 - Awareness of current Nunavut Arctic College offerings at campuses throughout the College system and advising students and centre staff on educational opportunities;
 - Supporting continuous learning throughout the community.

Undertakes special projects to support adult learning in the community through the Nunavut Arctic College as assigned or supported by the supervisor.

5. KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND ABILITIES

Describe the level of knowledge, experience and abilities that are required for satisfactory job performance.

Knowledge identifies the acquired information or concepts that relate to a specific discipline. Skills describe acquired measurable behaviors and may cover manual aspects required to do a job. Abilities describe natural talents or developed proficiencies required to do the job.

These requirements are in reference to the job, not the incumbent performing the job.

The responsibilities of the position require proficiency in mathematics, English, and/or Inuktitut and/or science, social studies, and computer software application including word processing and spreadsheets. The level of knowledge in these subjects can be acquired in the high school system. The Adult Educator is required to teach adults in various subjects. The incumbent needs to have foundational knowledge of adult learning and teaching, course delivery, and pedagogical skills in instructing adults. These skills and knowledge can be obtained by completing high school and obtaining a Certificate in Adult Education. As well, the incumbent is required to have one full academic year of teaching experience as an adult educator in a post-secondary setting. The incumbent is required to provide personal, career, and educational counseling and be culturally sensitive. Administrative responsibilities of the position require the incumbent to have skills in computer software, proposal writing, teamwork, counseling, staff supervision, and strong interpersonal skills. Leadership skills are essential to this position. Equivalencies may be considered.

The incumbent identifies, organises, develops and delivers programming suited to community requirements. S/he must be knowledgeable in adult learning theory as well as adult program management, delivery techniques and evaluation. Skills and abilities required include:

- Oral and written communication skills in English.
- Oral and written communication skills in Inuktitut would be considered an asset;
- Interpersonal skills conducive to promoting Nunavut Arctic College programs and developing partnerships at the community level;
- Budgeting
- Needs assessment techniques
- Supervisory and leadership skills
- Instructional and program planning
- Experience and knowledge of adult education techniques in a relevant field (ESL, Aboriginal Languages, Life Skills, Counselling, adult basic education)

Fluency in both written and oral Inuktitut along with an understanding of Inuit Cultural Traditions would be a definite asset.

- This is a position of trust. Incumbent will be responsible for the security of public property and/or assets. A Criminal Record Check will be required.

6. WORKING CONDITIONS

List the unavoidable, externally imposed conditions under which the work must be performed and which create hardship for the incumbent. Express frequency, duration and intensity of each occurrence in measurable time (e.g. every day, two or three times a week, 5 hours a day).

Physical Demands

Indicate the nature of physical demands and the frequency and duration of occurrences leading to physical fatigue or physical stress.

- Working alone necessitates maintaining the physical building (unplugging toilets, assembling furniture, moving desks, assembling and maintaining computer equipment, etc.)
- May have to carry parcels from post office, lift and move heavy items
- May be responsible for some snow removal outside the building.
- Participate in field trips such as trips on the land. It is expected that the incumbent would participate in such events.

Environmental Conditions

Indicate the nature of adverse environmental conditions to which the jobholder is exposed, and the frequency and duration of exposures. Include conditions that increase the risk of accident, ill health, or physical discomfort.

There are no serious environmental conditions except in older, poorly constructed and ventilated Community Learning Centres.

Sensory Demands

Indicate the nature of demands on the jobholder's senses. These demands can be in the form of making judgements to discern something through touch, smell, sight, and/or hearing. It may include concentrated levels of attention to details though one or more of the incumbents' senses.

There are no serious sensory demands.

Mental Demands

Indicate conditions within the job that may lead to mental or emotional fatigue that would increase the risk of such things as tension or anxiety.

- Counseling students in a smaller community involves dealing with student crisis issues, often without formal professional support at the community level.
- As the sole representative of the College within the community, the incumbent must work in geographic isolation without immediate support.
- At certain times of the year the workload can be very heavy and the stresses involved in the multi-faceted role can be great.
- The adult educator must represent the interests of both the community and the College, which can create complex expectations and demands
- As the senior College representative in the community, the expectation that the incumbent be a role model both professionally and personally can be stressful.

7. CERTIFICATION

Employee Signature	Supervisor Title
Printed Name	Supervisor Signature
Date:	Date
I certify that I have read and understand the responsibilities assigned to this position.	I certify that this job description is an accurate description of the responsibilities assigned to the position.
President Signature
Date
I approve the delegation of the responsibilities outlined herein within the context of the attached organizational structure.

8. ORGANIZATION CHART

Please attach Organizational Chart indicating incumbent’s position, peer positions, subordinate positions (if any) and supervisor position.

“The above statements are intended to describe the general nature and level of work being performed by the incumbent of this job. They are not intended to be an exhaustive list of all responsibilities and activities required of this position”.

GOVERNMENT OF NUNAVUT EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Title: Adult Educator

Salary: $95,882 to $108,810 per annum for 37.50 hour/week

Department: Nunavut Arctic College

Northern Allowance: $24,281 per annum

Community: Baker Lake

Union Status: Nunavut Employees Union

Reference Number: 051-050419-

Housing: Subsidized Staff Housing is Available

BAKAE-2954

Type of Employment: Indeterminate

Closing date: April 05, 2019 @ 12:00AM EST

This position is considered a Position of Trust and a Criminal Records Check is required.

This employment opportunity is open to all applicants

Nunavut Arctic College is hiring an Adult Educator for the Community Learning Centre of Baker Lake, Nunavut. The Adult Educator is responsible for planning, organizing, delivering and evaluating educational programming for adult students in the community. Reporting to the Coordinator Community Programs, Kivalliq region, the Adult Educator will identify and document education needs, provide instruction to students, support instructional staff, provide academic and career development counselling to students, and assist with managing the staff and the administrative functions of the Community Learning Centre. The incumbent will work with various individuals, organizations, companies and government departments in the community to determine and provide adult education and training needs.

The Adult Educator is required to teach adults in various subjects. Applicants must have completed high school and a have certificate in Adult Education plus 1 full academic year of teaching experience as an adult educator in a post-secondary setting. The incumbent is required to provide personal, career, and educational counseling and be culturally sensitive. Proficiency in Math, English, and/or Science, Social Studies and computer software application is required. Proficiencies of those subjects can be acquired through the high school system. Computer software application knowledge must include computer software application including word processing and spreadsheets. Verbal and written communication skills in Inuktitut would be considered an asset. Strong interpersonal and leadership skills are essential to this position.

Knowledge of Inuit language, communities, culture, land and Inuit Qaujimagatuqangit is an asset.

Equivalencies that consist of a combination of education, knowledge, skills and abilities to formal education and experience requirements may be considered.

If you are interested in applying for this job, please email your cover letter and resume to hr@arcticcollege.ca. Please include the REFERENCE # in the subject line of your email.

- The Government of Nunavut is committed to creating a more representative workforce so it can better understand and serve the needs of Nunavummiut. Priority will be given to Nunavut Inuit. Candidates must clearly identify their eligibility in order to receive priority consideration under the Nunavut Priority Hiring Policy.
- Employment in some positions requires an acceptable criminal record check. Possession of a criminal record will not necessarily disqualify candidates from further consideration.
- Applicants may submit their resume in the Official Language of their choice.
- Eligibility list may be created to fill future vacancies.
- Job descriptions may be obtained by fax, email or on the website.
- Only those candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.

